

From the Archives – March 2024

As we are now in Spring, it is nice to look forward to all the plants we will be able to grow soon. In this month's edition, take a look back to 1987. At the August flower show, Russell Leech won first prize for the Best Container Herb Garden. This distinctive container was handmade from one-inch cedar and measured 10 ¼ by 16 ¼ by 5 ¼ inches. It was beautifully made and was an excellent showcase for a variety of herbs. I hope you enjoyed this look back in time. Stay tuned for next month's edition of From the Archives.
